Woman to Woman

By Marion Canger

HATS are doing a right-about-face this summer. They've become headlines instead of sidelines. They're big and wide and alluring, framing the face and acting as the focal point of the whole costume. The new styles do, in fact, just what a frame does for a picture, giving a woman that necessary finished look.

One of the grandest things about the season's millinery treasures is that they are so varied every one can find her own type among them. Brims are big, but versatile, and a selection of becoming hats can make one good linen suit or silk shirtmaker dress seem like a whole new costume with every change of bonnet. ★ ★ ★

Another welcome bit of fashion news is that these hats are soft, feminine and really kind to women. They make plain women pretty and pretty women completely irresistible. The brims are even so skillfully manipulated that they can perform small facial miracles, making short necks seem longer, long noses seem shorter and in general playing up lovely contours.

The trend toward the molding of brims to flatter individual faces will carry right into the fall, and the smart woman will shop around and ascertain her particular style right now. And once having found the hat that does the most for her, she will do well to stick to it selecting it in different colors and textures to add variety to her wardrobe.

Norman Edwards, who made his fame in London when he started designing dresses for the Duchess of Kent and the Duchess of Windsor, then Wallis Simpson, has another piece of advice to offer about the selection of a hat.

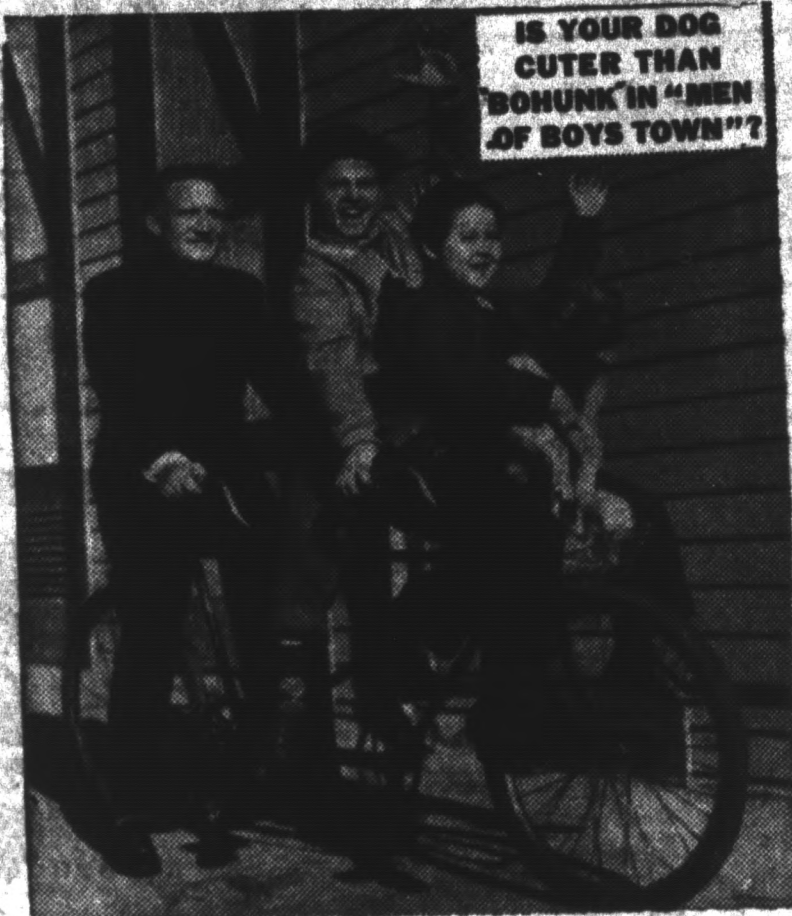

"Always stand up when buying a hat," says Mr. Edwards, "and look at yourself in a long mirror. A hat can not only add charm to your face but do wonders for your figure. It is an integral part of your costume, and only by seeing it as such at the time of purchase can you get the very one you need."

Mr. Edwards goes on to say that a woman is not completely dressed unless she is wearing a hat. He feels that American women have now emerged from the informal stage in their dressing and are entering a period of real elegance, which calls for the wearing of hats at all times in public places.

"Men Of Boys Town"

There are tragic and sentimental incidents based on "Peewee's" (Bobs Watson) devotion to his dog and vice versa. Here is a cute scene which occurs in "Men Of Boys Town," now playing at the Daly City theatre. Companion feature on the new bill is "Blonde Inspiration," with John Shelton and Virginia Grey.

Long Ticket

Prof. Grosvenor Robinson of Bates college has begun an 8,000-mile bus tour of the United States. It took an entire afternoon to make out the 15-foot long bus ticket that will take him on his vacation, a substitute for a European tour.

Animal Footprints

In bounding animals, such as rabbits, the hind feet register ahead of the front ones. One forefoot registers in front of the other, and the two large tracks made by the hind feet are placed side by side, beyond the smaller prints.

Cool Chiffon

SUMMER FORMAL in multi-colored chiffon is worn by actress Ilka Chase, star of Columbia network's "Penthouse Party" broadcast. Miss Chase finds this model both cool and effective for penthouse dining or country club dances. Notice its draped bodice of orange chiffon, smooth midriff in bright green crepe, and the front fullness of its flowered skirt. (From Jay Thorpe, N.Y.)

Antarctic Lemonade

Scientists have discovered a mixture of chalk and lemonade in mineral form at a depth of 18,000 feet in the Weddell sea of Antarctica. The scientists cannot explain how the citric acid of lemonade, heretofore found only in plants, came to be at the bottom of the Antarctic.

Swedes First

The Swedes, coming from a log-house country, built the first log cabins in Delaware in 1638. The Pennsylvania Dutch and the early Irish later made them popular.

No Log Cabins

Although most American illustrations picture them in log cabins, the late Harold R. Shurtleff, in the Log Cabin Myth, published by Harvard University Press, states that there were no log cabins in early New England or Virginia. They built frame houses.

Teaches With Films

Pant Fratinidhi, Rajah of Aundh, India, teaches his people with educational films and has made deep breathing exercises in schools compulsory.

More Space
If there is too little wall space to arrange furniture attractively, a door which is not absolutely essential could be permanently locked and covered with an appropriate wall hanging. Or if the room is to be repapered, the door might be blocked in with a plywood panel and papered.

Fals

Raccoons have an ideal home life, says the National Park service, because the male shares the responsibility of rearing and training the children.

The Hostess Tray Offers Hostess Enjoyment

By BETTY BARCLAY

Unexpected guests drop in the middle of the afternoon. Shoppers run up and down the aisles as you grope for an idea on what to serve? A hostess tray is ideal about that time. It quiets the feeling of helplessness and may be arranged with staples or items to be found in the average reserve cupboard or refrigerator.

Its simplicity is much to be desired for a quick service on the spur of the moment is truly a test of the perfect hostess. The tray may include such items as sliced breads—fruit, white or whole wheat; and sandwich spreads, such as peanut butter, jellies, marmalades, or various types of cheese; fruit slices or decorative bits of fruit may be served for floating in the beverage or as garnishes for taste and eye appeal.

In serving this type of tray, guests are invited to prepare their own particular favorite open-faced tea sandwich. This in turn gives the afternoon's entertainment a note of informality and gayness. You'll find they thoroughly enjoy being given an opportunity to choose their own sandwich spreads. Try it soon and notice the "ohs" and "ahs" as your guests prepare these tid-bits.

Iced tea with squeezable lemon quarters is a satisfying beverage to serve. The acidity of lemons and tea have for each other is almost equal to that of salt for pepper. The tartness of the lemon adds zip to the entire service both in color and flavor. This juice stimulates the appetite and promotes digestion... two very favorable qualities to find in luncheon or mid-afternoon refreshments.

To prepare slices of lemon which will add sufficient juice for the beverage with which it is served and at the same time lends its decorative quality, quarter the lemon and then make a cut deep enough to fit over the glass in the side toward the waxy-textured yellow peel, as shown. In this way the colored side of the lemon lends an attractive bit of color to the glass.

Any serving tray may be used for a hostess tray; however, those with special sections for beverages as well as individual dishes for bread toppings are ideal and are so much more simply handled. The hostess has no need for fear of footing or service with a tray which lends itself so nicely to such service.

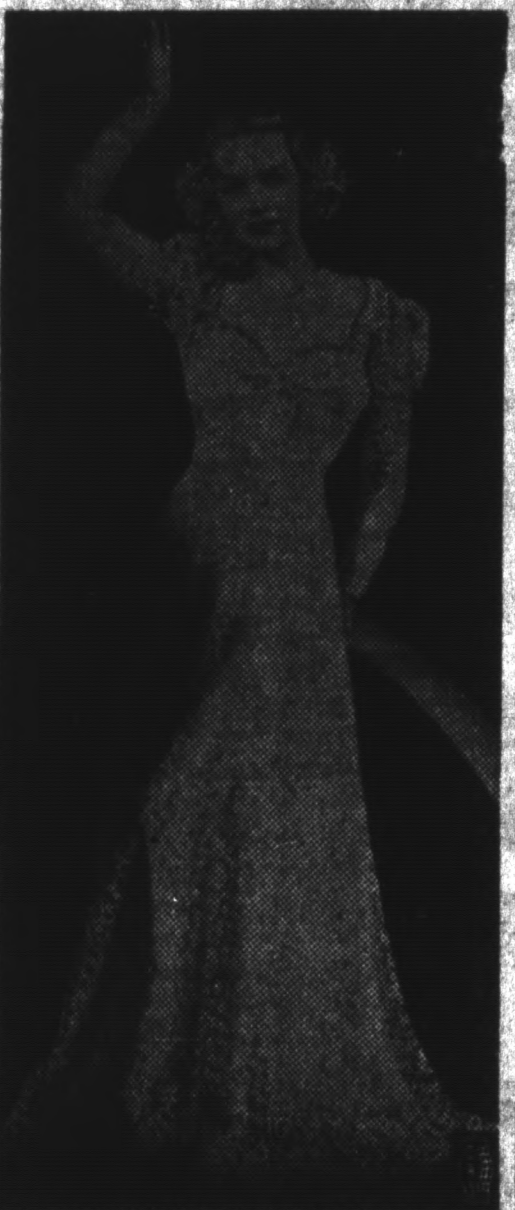

Hostess trays are becoming more and more popular because besides being nice for indoor refreshments they also adapt themselves exceptionally well to outdoor service. There is no need for carrying many dishes outside and then back again since the needs are very limited. Guests use only a napkin, luncheon plate, spreading knife, and iced tea spoon. The individual spoons for serving the spreads for the bread may be placed on the tray. Sugar should be served a little later for guests who use it as well as lemon in their tea.

Here we have the answer to those quakes when guests drop in, for a hostess tray enables the hostess to enjoy the afternoon as much as guests without any fuss or worry in advance or during the afternoon.

Custom Made

A CUSTOM MADE slacks suit is favored by CBS actress Toni Gilman of the "Martha Webster" series for both resort wear and lounging at home. The actress suggests that if you do not have your slacks custom made, be sure that they are altered to fit perfectly to avoid bagginess and bulging. The suit worn here is of light weight flannel with man tailored slacks and jacket trimmed with leather buttons which may be worn with a matching or contrasting skirt in town. (From Andrews of Luxembourg.)

When it's Picnic Time— Pack PICNIC TURNOVERS

American-style snacks for American-style fun

• Pack plenty of these tasty turnovers in your lunch baskets when you set out with the family to have a picnic. Watch them go for these "filler-up-ers," as the youngsters call them. Picnic Turnovers star a good old American combination of cheese and cunningly seasoned ham, tucked into a light, tender, flaky biscuit crust that melts in your mouth.

Picnic Turnovers fit with hearty, out-of-door appetites, but don't forget indoor appetites, either! For Sunday suppers, porch suppers—any informal entertaining—serve these savory Picnic Turnovers, piping hot.

Notice the seasoning tricks that make this ham and cheese filling extra tasty. Your biscuit crust should be light and flaky to go with the delicious filling. Be sure to make your biscuit dough with pure, all-vegetable lard—it cuts in so easily and quickly—makes biscuits a pleasure to mix.

"A recipe in time saves looking up mine"—so clip it now.

PICNIC TURNOVERS

1½ cups cooked ham, ground	2 cups sifted flour
¼ cup mayonnaise	2 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon dry mustard	½ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon onion juice	½ cup milk (about)
2 tablespoons dill pickle, finely chopped	5 thin slices cheese

Combine ham, mayonnaise, mustard, onion juice, and pickle, and mix well. Sift flour with baking powder and salt. Cut in lard. Add milk, mixing to a soft dough. Roll to ¼-inch thickness. Cut dough into 6-inch squares. Brush squares with melted butter. Place triangle of cheese on half of square, put 1 tablespoon ham mixture on cheese, and fold over other half of dough to form a triangle. Press edges together. Bake in hot oven (425° F.) 20 to 25 minutes. Serve hot or cold. Makes 10.

(All measurements in recipe are for 10.)

Family Cowpunchers

"Packsaddle" Ben Greenbough of Red Lodge, Mont., claims to have the bridle-ridingest family in the United States, declares the American Magazine. His two sons and two daughters go the rounds of about 25 rodeos every year, and consistently rope in the championship prizes.

Human Head Sacred

In the Fiji Islands, the human head is held to be sacred and it is an insult to reach above the head of another person. Women in consequence crawl on their hands and knees when men are at leisure inside a house. Persons who have been insulted are likely to commit suicide to eradicate the shame.

60 Per Cent

Passengers now account for 60 per cent of the income of the air lines of the United States.

A Winning Cookie

By Frances Lee Barton

"NOW let me see" said Maggie Goe.

"What shall I have for dinner?"

"Try our Chip Cookie recipe."

"It is this summer's winner."

Chocolate Chip

1 package semi-sweet chocolate, grated;

1½ cups sifted

flour; 1 teaspoon double-acting baking powder; ¼ teaspoon salt; 4

tablespoons butter or other shortening; ½ cup granulated sugar; ½

cup brown sugar, firmly packed; 1 egg, well beaten; 1 tablespoon milk; 1 teaspoon vanilla.

Grate chocolate on coarse grater.

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and salt, and sift again.

Cream butter and add sugars gradually, creaming thoroughly; add egg, milk, and vanilla, and mix well. Add flour gradually, mixing well after each addition. Add grated chocolate. Shape into rolls,

3 inches in diameter, and roll in waxed paper. Chill overnight, or until firm enough to slice. Cut in ¼-inch slices; bake on ungreased

baking sheet in moderate oven

(375° F.) 10 minutes. Makes about

3½ dozen cookies.

Unhappy Landing

Eldon Carter, Boise, Idaho, private pilot without a federal license, picked the wrong place to land. He crashed directly in front of the civil aeronautics authority office at the Boise airport when his motor failed. He escaped with slight injuries but his plane was confiscated.

Perishable Baking Powder

Baking powder is a somewhat perishable product. If overexposed to the air moisture is absorbed. It should be kept in a tightly closed can and in a cool, dry place.

Labors of Hercules

The 12 tasks of great difficulty imposed on Hercules by the Argive king were as follows: "To slay the Nemean lion, kill the Lernean hydra, catch and retain the Arcadian stag, destroy the Erymanthian boar, cleanse the stables of King Augeas, destroy the cannibal birds of the Lake Stymphalis, take captive the Cretan bull, catch the horses of the Thracian Diomedes, get possession of the girdle of Hippolyta, queen of the Amazons; take captive the oxen of the monster Geryon, get possession of the apples of the Hesperides, and bring up from the infernal regions the three-headed dog Cerberus.

Movie Monopoly

Coatesville, Pa., is the only town in the United States where the Y. M. C. A. has a movie monopoly. Its only competitor was taken over about seven years ago. The town frequently sees first run pictures before Philadelphia or New York.

Special Stamp

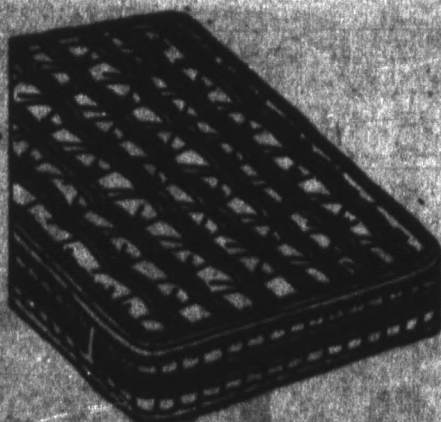

The National Society of Daughters of the American Colonists has asked the post office department to issue a special stamp to honor Mary Ball, mother of George Washington.

House of Cotton

The Farm Security administration is conducting experiments in the use of cotton as a building fabric. A house has been erected in Coffee, Ala., with roof and walls covered with cotton duck. The material is nailed to a smooth backing of plywood, plaster or composition board. It is painted with a mixture of white lead and linseed oil. The cost of such a house, including modern plumbing and electric wiring, is only about $1,350.

Pays Debt

L. B. Evans, a farmer of Alberta, Canada, pays his debts even if they are 15 years old. He sent a check for $90 to the city of Los Angeles for his hospital bill in 1925, at the pest house. The city wrote back that the treatments were free, but Evans refused to take back the money.

Most Spanish Spot

The most Spanish spot under the American flag is the romantic city of Ponce, on the southern coast of the United States territory of Puerto Rico. Although Ponce was the first city to be entered by the Americans who took Puerto Rico in 1898, it has been the last to give up the Latin heritage it derived from its Conquistadores. English is spoken widely in Puerto Rico, but Spanish is the prevailing language in this stronghold of old Castile.

Rubber Grips

To avoid dangerous bathtub falls are new rubber hand and foot grips that fasten securely to the bottom and sides of the tub with suction cups. The designs are conservative, neat, and there is a choice of colors.

Frankfurter Fingers

Broadcast by Mary Lee Taylor,
July 10, 1941

¾ cup grated American cheese (¾ lb.)
1 cup Fat Milk
¼ tsp. onion salt
¼ teaspoon pepper

¼ cup bottled mustard
12 slices bread, white or whole wheat
12 frankfurters (1½ lb.)

Mix together grated cheese, ¼ cup milk, the salt and pepper. Cook over boiling water until cheese melts and sauce is smooth, stirring frequently. Remove from heat, cover and let stand at room temperature until needed. Turn on oven and set at moderate (375°F.). Mix mustard with remaining ¼ cup milk. Remove crusts from bread slices. Spread one side of each slice with equal portions of mustard mixture. Then spread with equal portions of cheese mixture. Place frankfurters on top, diagonally across center of slices. Fold corners of bread over frankfurters, securing with toothpicks. Put on greased baking sheet. Bake 10 minutes, or until frankfurters are thoroughly heated. Makes a dozen. *Wieners may also be used.
